Relevant work experience and how it relates to Toastmasters and your role as a District officer:

Having worked as a consultant for global multinational telecom operators and vendors a key requirement has always been to show leadership in interfacing and meeting the needs of clients as well as being an ambassador for my company. This is synonymous with working as a District officer to help serve the needs of clubs while representing the District.

What experience do you have in strategic planning?

Working in an industry that is always evolving, I'm continuously involved in planning for the growth and expansion of the networks.

What experience do you have in the area of finance?

Knowledgeable and very competent with experience of managing projects with budgets.

What experience do you have in developing procedures?

Finding myself in a critical sector in the Telecom industry, developing and reviewing methods of procedures has been part of my work responsibilities since the beginning of my career.

What lessons did you learn from previous leadership positions?

1. Always being prepared.
2. Being on time.
3. Communicating clearly and effectively.
4. Leading by example.
5. Listening more and incorporating the views of others in decision making.

Why do you want to serve as a district officer?

Having been a member for the past 6 years, sponsoring and helping charter new clubs. I would like to bring the experience gained across 3 different Districts to help the District achieve its mission.

In your opinion, what are the district mission's major objectives and how would you work to achieve them?

The district mission is to build new clubs and support all clubs in achieving excellence. To help the district achieve this mission, I would like to help as a Division Director with continuous training of clubs.
